Taft Enters Senate Chamber and Delivers Address to Memory of Sherman.

SCENE IS IMPRESSIVE

First Time Since Washington Nation's Chief Has Appeared in Upper House.

Washington, February 15.—President Taft, his cabinet, the entire House of Representatives, the Senate, the Supreme Court and the diplomatic corps assembled to-day in the Senate chamber at memorial services for the late Vice-President James S. Sherman.

With all its solemnity, it was a scene of color and dignity, the President flanked by the sombre-robed justices of the Supreme Court and the brilliantly dressed diplomats, arrayed in full court costume. It was said by the Senate historians to have been the first time since Washington that a President had entered the Senate chamber while Congress was in session.

Both houses suspended business to hear addresses eulogizing the late Vice-President by President Taft, Speaker Clark and many Senators and Representatives.

President Taft took a seat on the floor of the Senate, directly in front of the clerk's desk and facing the assembled members of Congress. His cabinet took seats on each side of the Speaker, and the President, Speaker Clark and many Senators and Representatives.

Old Guard of Atlanta Will Be Their Guests During Trip in Spring.

Atlanta, Ga., February 15.—Atlanta's exclusive military organization, the Old Guard, the Gate City Guards, will leave May 20 for an extensive tour of the East, paying a return visit to the military, which left here in October, 1911, for the unveiling of the Peace Monument, commemorating the first visit of the Old Guard to the North after the close of the war.

Among the famous troops here at that time, who will be invited to the Atlanta company this year, are the Blues of Richmond, Fifth Regiment, of Baltimore; Old Guard, of New York; State Fencibles, of Philadelphia; Light Infantry and Ancient and Honorable Artillery, Boston, and Governor's Foot Guards and Putnam Phalanx, Hartford.

Special cars will convey the Old Guard to Washington, where a round of official galas will be arranged, and then the trip will be made to the present invitations showered on the Old Guard, when the visitors were in Atlanta and since that time, it is expected that the trip will be a jubilee occasion for the Old Guard.

The trip will be made by the sea, sailing June 1 from New York to Savannah. There will be probably seventy-five in the party.

Colonel Joseph E. Burke will be in command. He is accompanied by a committee on arrangements, with A. H. Davis and Charles P. Byrd. The first visit of the Old Guard to the East was October, 1875, and was hailed as evidence of a re-united country.

lams, Curtis, Martin, Lodge, Thornton and Cummins.

The unusual scene of the President addressing the Senate and the presence of diplomats and high officials in the chamber, attracted hundreds to the Senate galleries. None was admitted except by special card, and the corridors were crowded with those unable to gain entrance.

High Tributes Paid. High tributes to the fairness and capacity of Mr. Sherman were paid by Senator Gurnea, to whom he had confided his fears of being forced to retire from the Vice-President's chair before the end of his term.

The former Vice-President's long service as a member of the House was reviewed by Senator Lodge.

The tribute of the House of Representatives to its former member, who for many years was head of influential committees, was paid by Speaker Champ Clark.

He had himself so well in hand that he could not be baited into an exhibition of bad temper," said the Speaker. "In victory he was not offensively jubilant; in defeat he was not morose; he was equal to both extremes of fortune, clearly realizing with optimistic philosophy the astounding swiftness with which the situations change in this rapid age."

The President said in part: "Mr. Sherman was a man with whom no one could come in contact without feeling better for the meeting and with a more kindly disposition toward his fellow-men."

He loved politics; he correctly thought that he had done for his country, and became a partisan on principle.

He was an influential and leading member of the House during the controversy that took place over the question whether it should be permitted to do business or should be at the mercy of the celebrated memorial of a modest American, a disinterested patriot, an able statesman and a noble man."

The Key to Perfect Bodily Health Is Perfect Kidney Health

Unless you keep your kidneys healthy, you cannot have pure blood. As the blood circulates through the kidneys, the impurities are filtered out and ejected from the system. Keep your kidneys healthy and your blood will be pure. Let them fail through weakness or disease and the foundation of good health is broken down. The way to all kinds of bodily ills is thrown wide open. This dangerous condition continues until the kidneys have been restored to perfect health. You should examine the condition of your kidneys every few months.

Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Remedy

has been giving relief and health to sufferers from backache, dropsy, Bright's disease, liver trouble, dizziness, headache, and general weakness, for over a quarter of a century. It has been successfully used and endorsed by thousands in every part of the country.
